

Disclaimer and Notice:

The information in these pages was compiled using the archives and records of the Capital Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps as well as flyers, programs and show descriptions published by Drum Corps International.

This information is meant only to be used for general reference by the friends and alumni of the Capital Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps. As such, it should not be used for verifying employment or membership information.

Capital Regiment does not guarantee the accuracy of the information contained herein, and in no way should it be considered a definitive source for information about past members or staff.

If you feel that information contained in these archives concerning you or your minor child is inaccurate, please contact our webmaster or office staff.