

Greg Miller

Greg Miller got his musical start at a young age. His first performing experience was at the age of 10 on the stages of his elementary school and at his local church. He has since performed in various high school ensembles, college ensembles and in a world class drum and bugle corps.

Greg's marching experience started at Brunswick High School in Brunswick, OH and was a member of the OMEA State qualifying Marching Blue Devils all four (4) years of his high school career. He then went on to march with the University of Akron's Marching Band for two (2) years and finished his performing career with the Glassmen Drum and Bugle Corps in 2002.

Greg holds a Bachelor in Music Education (2004) from the University of Akron where he graduated Cum Laude. He continued his education at Akron serving as a Graduate Assistant of Bands from 2004 to 2006 where he helped instruct the University's ensembles and assisted the Director of Bands in all aspect of the band program. He graduated in 2006 with his Masters in Music Education.

Upon graduation, Greg was hired as the Director of Bands for the St. Clairsville-Richland City School District. His current teaching responsibilities include marching band instruction and design; middle school and high school concert bands; jazz ensemble; pep band; and the beginning band program for grades 5 – 12.
