

Jesse Lee Evans

Jesse Lee Evans completed his undergraduate work at Valparaiso University under the direction of Dr. Jeff Doebler and Dr. Stacy Maugans where he received bachelor degrees in Music and Education with a secondary in trumpet. Aside from performing with several professional level wind ensembles, Jesse has also marched with the Glassmen and the Madison Scouts as a lead baritone.

As an instructor and designer Jesse has worked for the past eight years as a visual tech, brass tech, visual caption head, and drill designer for various high schools in Indiana. Jesse also spent a summer working for Marching Show Concepts Inc. as a drill adapter.

Jesse is currently an instrumental music director for Plymouth Community School District where he resides with his wife in Plymouth, IN. His responsibilities include conducting several wind ensembles, a string ensemble, and two competitive percussion ensembles all of which consistently receive superior marks at local and state music festivals.
