

Jimmy Schlenkert

Jimmy Schlenkert currently resides in Detroit, Michigan. Even at the young age of 22, he has been apart of the marching music and pageantry arts activity for almost a decade now. He started his marching career with the Lakeland High School Marching Band in 2001 as a Baritone Saxophone player. In 2004 and 2005 he performed with the winter guard at Lakeland High. After graduating high school in 2005, he has attend classes at Oakland Community College from 2005-2009 for Dance and Theatre. While going school he has also performed and traveled with multiple groups all over the Mid-West area. Such groups include Third Edition in 2006 from Montrose, MI; Interplay World in 2007 from Grand Rapids, MI. In 2008 after moving to Chicago, IL he performed with Independence winter guard from Tinley Park, IL. Once moving back to Michigan in 2009, he drove every weekend during the winter season to Dayton, OH to perform with the Zydeco Color Guard and ending with a 7th place finish in WGI Finals. Jimmy has also performed in DCI as a member of The Bluecoats Drum and Bugle Corps in 2006, 2007 and 2008. In 2009 he marched with the Carolina Crown finishing in seconded place and receiving the 2009 DCI Silver Medal. He has also worked and choreographed for multiple groups such as Lakeland High, Huron Valley, Andrew High and Marian Catholic High School. He currently works with West Bloomfield High in West Bloomfield, MI for the 2010 winter season.

During the current 2010 winter season, Jimmy will be performing as one of the cast members of the Pride Of Cincinnati winter guard based out of Cincinnati, OH.

Jimmy is looking forward to working with the fellow color guard staff and making the color guard and the Drum Corps the best Capital Regiment they can be!! This will be his first year with the corps and is looking forward to a great 2010 summer!!
