

Nick Pourcho

Nick Pourcho returns for his second year with Capital Regiment and is excited to take on a couple of new roles with the corps. Nick has been appointed Program Coordinator and Brass Arranger in addition to his role as Front Ensemble Arranger. “I am extremely excited to take on these new positions along with my front ensemble duties. I am confident Capital Regiment will be very strong this year. It will be great to build on what was accomplished last season and I am glad I will be a part of it,” says Nick.

Nick holds a BM in Music Education from Michigan State University and has instructed various music programs across the state of Michigan. Currently these include the Director of Walled Lake Percussion, Assistant Director for the Northcoast Academy Percussion Ensemble and the Assistant Band Director for the Walled Lake Central Band Program. Nick has taught the Syracuse Brigadiers, Revolution and Dimensions Drum and Bugle Corps’ and various other programs across the state of Michigan.

Nick has arranged music for a number of programs including: Capital Regiment, Revolution, Dimensions Drum and Bugle Corps, Northcoast Academy Percussion Ensemble, Walled Lake Percussion, The MSU Spartan Marching Band and numerous High School marching bands across the nation. He has also been the Visual Designer for a number of High School marching bands and winter drum lines.

Nick was a member of the 2001 DCI World Champion Cavaliers Drum and Bugle Corps and is currently an Innovative Percussion Education Artist.
