

Todd Barton

Todd Barton joins the staff of Capital Regiment with an extensive background in Music Education and performance. He brings a passion for education and the artistic development of musicians through theoretical knowledge and essential experience. He has a history of quality performance groups and has worked with top high school programs in California and Colorado. Todd has performed and instructed with the Santa Clara Vanguard organization for 8 years and holds a degree in music from San Jose State University.