

Will Powell

Will Powell, born in Southeast LA, got his musical start in middle school and soon began playing trombone with local community bands.

He began marching in 1997 for his high school in Houma, LA. During his last two years at Ellender Memorial High School, he was a member of Louisiana's All-Star Marching Honor Band, and in November 2000, he became involved with the Glassmen Drum and Bugle Corps from Toledo, OH.

He continued marching contrabass bugle with the corps through 2004. During his off-seasons Will became an instructor for local high school marching programs.

Will began studying music at Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, LA in 2003 and is planning to return to Nicholls full-time to continue his studies.
